

PRESS 2018 GLOBAL TRENDS IN FUNDING FOR STATISTICS

The 2018 PRESS highlights the international community's support to statistics in 2016. The report highlights positive trends in investments for statistics and a growing diversification of donors.

623 Million USD
for statistics

Commitments to statistical development increased by 5% in 2016, up from 591 Million USD in 2015.

0.33%
of ODA for statistics

The share of Official Development Assistance (ODA) focused on data and statistics was 0.33% in 2016, an increase from 0.30% the previous year.

88% from 10 donors

The top 10 donors provided 88% of total commitments from 2014- 2016.

World Bank	UNICEF
Eurostat	Norway
Canada	Gates Foundation
UNFPA	United Kingdom
IMF
Sweden

363 M given to 5 countries

The top 5 recipients of statistical funding from 2014-2016 received 363 million USD, or 30% of all country-specific commitments.

340 M

for fragile situations

Fragile situations received a total of USD 340 million for statistical development between 2014 and 2016.

10%

for gender

For multilateral donors, 10% of statistical development projects in 2017 contained activities for gender statistics.

33 M

for SIDS

Small Island Developing States (SIDS) received a total of USD 33 million for statistical development between 2014 and 2016.

574 M

from foundations

While private foundations provided a total of USD 23.9 billion from 2013-2015, USD 573.7 million are associated with statistics and data.

Source: OECD (2018), Private Philanthropy for Development

Beneficiaries of aid to statistics, 2014-2016

